

The family of Lynn MacVey and the Percheron Horse Association of America Education and Charitable Fund are teaming up to create a Legacy Agricultural Scholarship for a student that is/was an FFA member and has a Percheron interest/background. This Scholarship would be worth $500 per semester for a total of $2,000 for technical schooling or $4,000 for a four year college. If you would like to contribute to this scholarship in memory of Lynn, please give The Education Fund the following information so that your generous donation can be acknowledged by the family:
